

Head Research - Trade & Economic Analysis
Terms of Reference

1. Set annual Research agenda of TDAP based on the existing strategy and future requirements.
2. Supervise the Research Associates in developing research-based Market and Product analysis which could be used by the Authority to advance the interests of different export sectors of the country and export related subjects with a view to develop particular export sectors and subject areas in terms of their contribution to the overall exports of the country.
3. Responsible for overall quality of research and that the research procedure fulfill all literature.
4. Head of Research would also be expected to develop his own research agenda/plan and implement it based on TDAP's requirements.