

Mali is a landlocked country in West Africa. It is eighth-largest country in Africa, with an area of over 1,240,000 square kilometers. The economy of Mali is based to a large extent upon agriculture, with a mostly rural population engaged in subsistence agriculture. It is among the ten poorest nations of the world. Mali's great potential wealth lies in mining and the production of agricultural commodities, livestock, and fish.

Ambassador of Mali Yaya Doucoure said Mali and Pakistan should work together in the agriculture sector and avail benefit from each other's experience, adding that the agriculture sectors of both the countries are rich with resources and abilities. Further, said that Mali has vast agri land that can be given on lease for 30 years to the investors. Pakistan Exports to Mali was US$182.78 Thousand during 2020 and Imports from Mali was US$336.05 Thousand during 2020
