

Pakistan-Sudan relations have been characterized as "close", "warm", "brotherly", and "cordial". Both, Pakistan, and Sudan, share the same religion as well as historical baggage of colonial rule. During 2020, Pakistan's exports goods worth $19.37 Mn and imported goods worth $ 24.01 Mn recording a trade deficit of $4.6 Mn. The bilateral trade results in favor of Kenya in the year 2020.

Further, Sudan donated generously in the relief efforts during earthquake in 2005 and floods in 2010 in Pakistan. Moreover, through various memorandums of understanding, the two cooperate in the fields of agriculture, healthcare and education. Pakistan is also supporting Sudan with higher education as more than five hundred students from Sudan study in the universities of Pakistan which is the highest number of Sudanese students to any foreign country.
