

Press Release

Karachi, October 7th, 2022

Engineering & Healthcare Show

TDAP the Trade Development Authority of Pakistan after a successful 1st edition of EHCS 22 has organized its 2nd edition named as Pakistan Engineering and Healthcare Show 2023 which will be held at Expo Center Lahore from Feb 23rd-25th, 2023 in the central city of Punjab, Lahore.

The Delegates from across 56 countries of Africa, Central Asian Republics, Middle East, Sri Lanka, Afghanistan & China are going to be a healthy part of this exhibition. It will have 24 product categories which will range from national engineering to dynamic health sectors.

This year, EHCS 2023 has received 70 applications so far from different sectors of Engineering & Healthcare which have reserved more than 110 stalls in three halls of Lahore Expo center. The main participation so far is from Cutlery & Crockery sector, Furniture sector, Pharmaceutical, Surgical & Dental instruments, Construction material, Handicrafts etc.

The International marketing has been started & many Buyers who attended its 1st editions have confirmed their visit the Exhibition. The factory/unit visits are also planned which will be executed on 2nd & 3rd day of event.