TOURISM IN PAKISTAN:

In Pakistan, tourism is a growing industry. In 2010, Lonely Planet termed Pakistan "tourism's 'next big thing' for more years than we care to remember". The country is geographically and ethnically diverse, and has a number of historical and cultural heritage sites. The upsurge in tourism in the past few years has been aided by the Government of Pakistan's recent decision to facilitate all tourists seeking to visit certain parts of the country.

Pakistan was ranked The Best Holiday Destination for 2020 and was also declared the third-highest potential adventure destination in the world for 2020. As security in the country improves, tourism increases; in two years, it has increased by more than 300%. The country received an influx of travel vloggers, who showed the beauty of the country, especially the northern areas Hunza and Skardu.

In 2018, the British Backpacker Society ranked Pakistan the world's top adventure travel destination, describing the country as "one of the friendliest countries on earth, with mountain scenery that is beyond anyone's wildest imagination" Forbes ranked Pakistan as one of the 'coolest places' to visit in 2019. The World Economic Forum's Travel & Tourism Competitiveness Report placed Pakistan in the top 25 per cent of global destinations for its World Heritage sites, which range from the mangroves in the Indus delta to the Indus Valley Civilization sites including Mohenjo-daro and Harappa.

Pakistan is blessed with diverse strands of tourism, enabled by every region to offer unique taste for all kinds of tourists from around the globe.

Religious (Faith) Tourism	Pakistan is an especially important site for both Sikh and Buddhist tourists. Punjab was the center of the only Sikh empire in history. Nankana Sahib, the birthplace of Baba Guru Nanak, is one of the holiest sites for Sikhs. Similarly, Buddhist tourism has an estimated market of 500 million Buddhists across the world. Pakistan's Gandhara region comprising Mardan, Taxila and Swat holds a special place for them.
Conventional (Cultural & Urban) Tourism	Pakistan's rich culture is embedded with numerous festivals, sports, and profound customs. Some are: Karakoram Car Rally, Chowmas, Mela Phool Lok, Utchal Festival, Polo Shandur, Sibi Festival, Sindh Horse & Cattle Show, Jashan-e-Larkana, Bassant, Nauroze, Mela Chiraghan, Horse & Cattle Show (Festival of lamps), Jashan e Shikarpur, Joshi or Chilimjush, etc.
Archaeological Tourism	Pakistan possesses remains of several ancient civilizations. The most famous is Indus Valley Civilization which dates to 3,000 BC. However, due to investigations in Balochistan the remains of Mehrgarh have stretched the antiquity even further back in time to 5,000 BC. The most famous sites of Indus Valley Civilization are Moenjoaro (Sindh) and Harrappa (Punjab). The other famous ancient sites are evidence of Buddhist civilization that flourished in this land. There are several of them and are found in the northern part of Pakistan. They are situated in Taxila (Punjab) and Takht-e- Bahi (NWFP). (HunzaExplorers.com)
