Contribution of Livestock Sector to Agriculture

Livestock is contributing approximately 61.9 percent of agriculture value added and 14.0 percent to the national GDP during 2021-22. Animal husbandry is the most significant economic activity of the dwellers of rural areas of Pakistan. More than 8 million rural families are engaged in livestock production and are deriving around 35-40 percent of their income from this sector. Gross value addition of livestock has increased from Rs 5,269 billion (2020-21) to Rs 5,441 billion (2021-22), showing an increase of 3.26 percent. (Base Year 2015-16) (Economic Survey of Pakistan-2021-22)

2020-21	2021-22	3.36%
331.63	342.78

Meat is a major source of proteins, vitamins, and minerals, which is important for the health of humans. A total of US$ 342.78 million of meat and meat products were exported during FY 2021-22 from the registered export oriented slaughter houses in the private sector (Source: PBS July-June 2021-22). The export of other livestock by-products such as animal casings, bones, horns & hooves, gelatin etc. was facilitated by MNFSR. The efforts continued for market access with the relevant concerned authorities in China, South Africa, Russia, Iran, Vietnam, Malaysia, Singapore and Indonesia using diplomatic channels for export of various meat and meat products. During FY2021, a significant increase in Private GFCF was seen in Agriculture (17 percent) on account of increase in imported agriculture machinery and increase in value of stock in the livestock sub-sector. The other sectors in Private GFCF which posted growth were Small Scale including Slaughtering (21 percent). Livestock having 60 percent share in agriculture is very important in determining the overall outcome. Within Livestock Poultry and Poultry Products posted growth of 12.8 percent. Likewise, other components of livestock also have shown positive growth, however, due to 8.9 percent increase in intermediate consumption, growth in livestock remained 3.1 percent in FY2021 (Economic Survey of Pakistan 2021-22).
